

TRADE AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF INDIA AND THE GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF ZIMBABWE

The Government of the Republic of India and the Government of the Republic of Zimbabwe (hereinafter referred to as "the Contracting Parties") :

Desiring to expand trade and economic co-operation between the two countries on the basis of equality and mutual advantage;

Having decided to conclude a Trade Agreement;

Have agreed as follows :

Article 1

1. Subject to the laws and regulations in force in their respective countries, the Contracting Parties shall endeavour to encourage exports from and imports into their respective countries of the commodities set out in Annexure A and B to the present Agreement or such other commodities as may be agreed to from time to time in accordance with Paragraph 3 in this Article.
2. Annexure A designates the list of exports from India to Zimbabwe and Annexure B designates the list of exports from Zimbabwe to India.
3. These lists are indicative in nature and goods not included in the above mentioned indicative lists may also be exchanged in accordance with the existing laws and regulations in force in both countries.

Article 2

1. The Contracting Parties agree to grant each other most favoured nation treatment in respect of the following :

- (i) customs duty and all other duties and taxes applicable to the importation, exportation or transit of commodities ;

- (ii) customs formalities and all dues and charges in relation to importation, exportation, transit storage and transshipment of commodities ;
- (iii) issue of import and export licences.

2. The provisions of this Article shall not, however, apply to :

- (i) advantages which one of the Contracting Parties has granted or may grant to neighbouring countries in order to facilitate frontier traffic ;
- (ii) advantages which result from a customs union, free trade area or trade agreement or arrangement of which either Contracting Party is or will become a party ;
- (iii) preferences or advantages accorded by either Contracting Party to any country as existing on the date of the conclusion of the present agreement or those granted in replacement thereof ;
- (iv) any advantages or preferences accorded under any scheme for expansion of trade and economic co-operation among developing countries and to which either of the Government is or may become a Party ;
- (v) goods and produce which do not originate in either the Republic of Zimbabwe or the Republic of India.

3. The Contracting Parties agree that the country of origin of goods traded between them shall be established in accordance with the laws and regulations in force in the importing country.

Article 2

Produce and manufactures originating in the country of one of the Contracting Parties which have been imported into the country of the other Contracting Party shall not be re-exported to a third country without the supplier's written consent.

Article 4

All payments made between the Contracting Parties in pursuance of this Agreement shall be effected in any freely convertible currency through normal banking channels in accordance with the foreign exchange regulations in force in their respective countries.

Article 5

The Contracting Parties shall give preferences, when selecting transportation for commodities to be exchanged in accordance with this Agreement, to their respective national carriers, but where the services of such carriers are not availed of, the Contracting Parties shall endeavour, wherever possible, to use the national carriers of the other Contracting Party.

Article 6

The Contracting Parties shall, subject to the laws and regulations in force in their respective countries and on conditions agreed upon by the competent authorities of both parties, allow the importation and exportation free of customs duties, taxes and other similar charges not related to the payment for services, the following:

- (a) Samples of commodities and publicity material of no commercial value ;
- (b) Commodities imported for the purpose of fairs and exhibitions on condition that they may not be sold or otherwise disposed of ;
- (c) Commodities imported temporarily for repair on condition that they are re-exported after such repair within six months.

Article 7

In order to facilitate and promote the

and in accordance with the laws and regulations in force in their respective countries, each Contracting Party shall allow the organisation of trade fairs and exhibitions in its country by the other Contracting Party and shall grant such Contracting Party all necessary facilities for that purpose.

Article 8

For the effective implementation of this Agreement, the Contracting Parties agree to establish a Joint Committee which shall be composed of representatives of the Contracting Parties. This Committee shall meet at the request of either Contracting Party at convenient dates for both of them, alternating between the capitals of the countries of the Contracting Parties.

Article 9

Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed so as to derogate from any existing international obligation of either Contracting Party.

Article 10

This Agreement shall come into force on a date to be fixed by an exchange of notes between the Governments of the two countries, and shall remain in force for a period of two years, to be automatically renewed thereafter for further periods of two years, unless one Contracting Party gives a written notice of its termination six months prior to the expiry of the Agreement.

Article 11

In the event of the termination of this Agreement, its provisions shall continue to govern any existing and unexpired contract or contracts concluded thereunder.

In witness whereof, the representatives duly authorised by their respective Governments have signed this Agreement.

Done at New Delhi, on 22nd Day of May in the year One Thousand Nine Hundred Eighty One, in two originals each in English and Hindi Languages, both being equally authentic but with the understanding that in case of inconsistency, the English text will prevail.
